

CHILDREN/RELIGIOUS/BIBLE

Who said the Bible is Boring?

Anyone who can heal the sick, raise the dead and walk on water can't possibly be boring! Take some time and learn about the most exciting person who lived, died and is ALIVE forevermore!

Inside you will discover:

- Ninety-one stories from the gospels covering the life and teachings of Jesus
- modern language that kids understand
- 103 pages of full colour cartoons
- food for thought and principles to live by after each story

"Let me say that your cartoons and idea are very easy to understand." - Gwen Ellis, Retired Editor from Zonderkidz (Zondervan Corporation)

"Bible characters and stories come to life. This book reaches the hearts of both young and old with the ageless truths of God's Word. Patricia's talent and tireless efforts have created a unique and valuable worldwide ministry tool." - Wayne B. Dalgleish, M.Ed. (University of Toronto), M.T.S. (McMaster University Divinity College), Adjunct Professor, Master's College and Seminary

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Patricia Loranger has been a children's minister for more than twenty years. She is the author of several volumes of Children's Church Curriculum which have been purchased by churches all over the world. Her keen sense of humour and cartoons have caused her work to be a favourite of kids and teachers alike. She resides in Canada with her husband and beautiful children.

FOR AGES 9 AND UP

